District Superintendent's Report

The Horry County School District and its schools show continued academic improvement while accountability standards keep climbing.

The SC Education Oversight Committees recognized 12 district schools for significantly improving the performance of low achieving students. Ten schools received state honors as Palmetto Gold and Palmetto Silver award winners for academic improvement on the Palmetto Achievement Challenge Test. Myrtle Beach Elementary School and Kingston Elementary School were two of six schools in the state to be recognized for superior student achievement as a part of the Title I Distinguished Schools Recognition Program. Homewood Elementary School was named a Red Carpet School for exemplary customer service.

Also, our graduating class of 2008 collectively earned more than $40 million in scholarships. Of the 1,790 graduates, more than 80 percent planned to continue their education at either a four-year or two-year post secondary school. Loris High School and Myrtle Beach High School were two of 15 high schools in South Carolina to be ranked among "America's Best High Schools" by U.S. News & World Report. For the third year in a row, Socastee High School was listed among "America's Top Five Percent of High Schools" according to Newsweek magazine.

Multiple renovations and addition projects are in the works to complete our $240 million building program, which was begun in 2005. As our enrollment increases at a rate of nearly 1,000 students each year, we are charting future growth and looking at ways to maximize current buildings to make sure that our students have the facilities they need to support educational expectations.

It has been a privilege to serve the children and communities of Horry County as the Acting Superintendent for the last two years, and I look forward to remaining in service to you and in support of our new superintendent, Dr. Cindy Elsberry. It will take all of us working tirelessly together to give our students the best educational experience possible so that we can advance Horry County Schools toward becoming one of the highest performing school districts in the nation.

Dr. Bobby Nalley, Acting Superintendent, 2007-08
